

RESULT OF ELECTION IN OTHER STATES

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—With six precincts missing San Francisco gives Johnson 23,897, Bell 22,746, Wilson 9,245, Spellacy 21,001.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—The city and county of Los Angeles, 210 precincts heard from, give Johnson 14,018, Bell 10,986.

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—The total vote of Alameda county except Alameda precinct, gives Johnson 16,019, Bell 10,131, Wilson 5,675.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 9.—Incomplete returns at noon from thirteen counties outside of Multnomah, give Bowerman, republican for governor, 4,743; West, democrat, 5,457. The indications are that West is elected, and McBride is undoubtedly elected to the supreme bench. Laferty, republican, is leading for congress.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Revised returns for governor give Foss, democrat, a plurality of 32,967. The next legislature, which will elect a senator to succeed Lodge, is republican.

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—The woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution carried by a large majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—It is now certain (3:30 p. m.) that the next legislature will be democratic, insuring a democratic senator.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The democrats elected to congress 221; the republicans 157, and the socialists 17. The net democratic gain is 48. The working majority of democrats, 25.

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—While the returns are still far from complete, they confirm a complete republican victory in California. The plurality of Johnson is estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000, and the entire ticket will approximate these figures. Returns from all but 26 precincts in this city indicate that Johnson carried this city by about 1,000. A heavy socialist vote drew largely from Bell. A solid republican delegation from this state will be returned to congress, while the legislature is safely republican, insuring the election of a republican United States senator.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The latest compilation of the returns shows that congress will stand as follows: The democrats elected 216, republicans 158 and socialists 1. There are 16 districts missing or in doubt. Total congressmen elected, 361; gain by the democrats, 53; gain by republicans 35; net gain by democrats, 45.

GOOD MAJORITIES FOR REPUBLICANS IN RENO AND SPARKS

A dispatch from Reno today gave the following majorities to the candidates mentioned. The vote is for both Reno and Sparks:

Nixon carried the two towns by a majority of 909 votes, Roberts 830, Oddie 517, Douglass 215, McMillan 585, and Baker 336. There is absolutely no doubt of the election of Nixon, Roberts and Oddie, and this fact is conceded by the democrats.

man last night and died today. An employee of the place named William Harvey, who attempted to knock the robber down with a chair, was instantly killed by the robber, who escaped.

SAVES PRISON FARE TO FEED HIS FAMILY

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Theophile Paluchek, a prisoner in the Charles street jail, where he is awaiting a hearing on the charge of stealing 6300 roubles from the mails in Russia, has been saving from his daily meals food for his family, which is said to be on the verge of starvation.

It was found today that the prisoner had collected a bundle of eatables, which he was trying to have taken to his wife and five children. In order to procure it he must have deprived himself of everything except that which was absolutely necessary to keep him alive, and laid aside something each day for his loved ones.

MANY VALUABLE AUTOS DESTROYED BY FIRE

DELAGUA, Colo., Nov. 9.—Men are known to have been killed in an explosion that wrecked a portion of mine No. 3 of the Victor Fuel company here yesterday. Nine men were rescued alive. Willie Evans, the engineer at the mine, lost his life in a heroic rescue of four entombed miners.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL THE NEXT SENATE

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The broad sweep of the political wave which rolled over the country yesterday is further emphasized by the additional returns received and the revised figures at hand today. The democratic majority in the house of representatives will be at least 42, and possibly more, against the present republican majority of 43.

The republican majority of 26 in the senate is rapidly approaching the vanishing point as additional returns are received, although the republicans are reasonably sure of 48 senators, one more than is necessary for a majority, with numerous places still in doubt. The most notable changes are as follows:

In Ohio, a democratic legislature was elected, insuring a democratic successor of Dick, republican. The plurality of Governor Harmon is 60,000.

The West Virginia legislature will elect a democratic senator to succeed Scott, republican.

The Indiana legislature, which is to choose a successor to Beveridge, is in doubt, with the democrats claiming a majority of twelve, but which is not conceded by the republicans. Iowa is still uncertain, both sides claiming the governorship.

The Pennsylvania legislature is safely republican. Washington has a republican legislature, appearing to insure the election of Poindexter to the senate. The Utah legislature is republican, while that of Montana is in doubt. Incomplete returns from Oregon appear to indicate the election of Oswald. West, a democrat, was elected governor of Missouri, and the legislature of that state, which will elect a senator, is also democratic. The plurality of Governor Dix of New York is approximately 65,000. Dix carried the entire state ticket with him. The plurality of Woodrow Wilson for governor of New Jersey is 30,000. Judge Baldwin was chosen governor of Connecticut by 3000.

BUTLER WILL SHOW LATEST ELECTION RETURNS

The program of the Butler theater for today is as follows: "The Fiance and the Dog," a comedy in which some amusing situations develop when the dog and the fiance get into close proximity. "The Baggage Smasher" is a Lubin comedy in which Cupid and the baggage-man get into some serious difficulties. "The Chink At Golden Gulch" is a Biograph drama in which the Chinese and their beliefs are very faithfully represented and the plot is exceptionally well worked out. The election returns will be read at all performances and the winners' pictures and their majorities will be flashed on the screen.
